- 8.2. The Seller holds all appropriate insurances as would normally be expected of a responsible corporate entity providing services such as the Activities.
- 8.3. The Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) began in New Zealand in 1974 as a public, no-fault accident insurance scheme covering accidental injury. The scheme provides financial compensation and support to citizens, residents, and temporary visitors who have suffered personal injuries in New Zealand. The ACC scheme applies regardless of who caused the accident and how it was caused. It also means that an injured person cannot sue for any costs that relate to the injury or its negative effects. The Seller therefore cannot and is not required to hold private accident insurance in respect of participants of the Activities.

9. Seller's Liability

- 9.1. The Buyer acknowledges that participation in some of the Activities involves a degree of personal risk. The Seller assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any damage to person or property of anyone when undertaking the Activities. Persons participate in all Activities at their own personal risk in all respects. The Buyer acknowledges that limitations to the Seller's Liability result from the cover provided by the ACC scheme identified in clause 8.3.
- 9.2. The Seller confirms that it will comply with all its obligations and requirements under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 in respect of the Activities.
- 9.3. The Seller shall not be responsible to the Buyer, or any other person, whether in contract, tort or otherwise for any loss or damage or injury arising directly or indirectly from the Activities supplied by the Seller to the Buyer or by delay in delivery of the same.
- 9.4. The Seller is not bound by any unauthorised statements, conditions, or agreements made by the Seller's agents or servants that do not adhere to these terms and conditions.
- 9.5. If the Buyer has a complaint in relation to the Seller it will inform the Seller so that the Seller can attempt to rectify the matter. If satisfaction is not reached through these means then any further complaint should be put in writing to the Seller. If no complaints are received within 30 days of the relevant Activities taking place then the Activities will be conclusively determined as free from any issues.

9.6. Where the Seller is found liable to the Buyer for any reason whatsoever, the extent of the Seller's liability will not exceed 100% of the value of the contract price for the particular Activities in question.
